WAKING UP.

Our good friends over in Santa Cruz held a meeting at which the subject of matching county and federal aid funds was discussed and it is to be hoped that this meeting, which was held last Saturday, will bring about an application for federal aid to complete the Nogales to Patagonia highway on the Nogales-Tombstone section of the state highway.

PASSED THROUGH.

The big well drilling rig from the Bowie field passed through Tombstone Saturday on a fleet of trucks for the other side of the Whetstones where it will be set up in that promising oil field. It is said that 3500 feet ought to bring a gusher, but the chances are that oil will be found long before that depth is reached, according to geologists.

TROOP MOVEMENT.

One or two troops of cavalry will be in Tombstone Wednesday or Thursday night enroute from Fort Apache to Fort Huachuca. Last night supply wagon outfits camped here enroute to meet the troop coming this way and other outfits will be here tomorrow night carrying the supplies from Huachuca to the troops coming this way. They come into Cochise county camping at Wilcox, Pearce and Tombstone.

OVER $600,000 IN TAXES

COLLECTED TODAY.

Over $600,000 in taxes covering the second installment had been paid into the county treasury up to 3 o'clock this afternoon, according to County Treasurer Guy C. Welch, while several thousand more were expected to be received before closing time at 5 o'clock tonight when taxes for 1921 become delinquent. During April and the first day of May over $1,000,000 have been paid into the treasury. It will take several days to check up tax monies received, following which the delinquent list will be compiled, which is expected to be the lowest in years.

REGISTRATION OPENS TODAY.

The registration of voters opened today, and County Recorder H. L. Hutchison announced that all registration officers have been supplied with the necessary supplies and the machinery for the registration of Cochise county voters started off in fine shape this morning.

No person who is not registered this year will be permitted to vote, regardless of whether he or she registered two years ago.

The registration headquarters at the county recorder's office will close in days before the September primaries, will remain closed for 17 days and will then re-open and will stay open until October 15. Recorder Hutchison said.

Recorder Hutchison again called the public's attention to a recent ruling by the attorney general's office declaring that a county recorder may NOT cancel the registration of an elector when the elector has changed his political party affiliation and wishes to register anew.

Six inches of rain fell in four hours the first day with the result that the cattle-men who had been hard hit by the drought are now in better spirits. The bad weather prevented him from disposing of his cattle, Mr. Bennett reports, which are in pretty good condition considering the drought.

ROSA CARILLO

TO SEEK PARDON.

Rosa Carillo, who is serving a two-year suspended sentence for bootlegging, when she was caught in the act the second time, will make application to the state board of pardons and paroles for her release from the county jail, where she is now confined. Before Judge A. C. Lockwood in chambers today the woman, who has four dependent children, asked the court to extend clemency and recommend to the pardon board her release in order that she may care for them properly. On condition that she plead guilty to the present charge, for which she will be sentenced to the maximum, another two years suspended, the court advised her that he would recommend her parole. On her release, the court told her and her oldest daughter, who was in court with her, that if she returns to the business of selling whiskey, no further quarter will be given, but her children will be taken away from her and she will be forced to serve out her full sentence. When the board of pardons meets next month the application will be put before them, since the prisoner will have then served three months of the present sentence, which was one of the conditions before the court would recommend clemency.
